Brother Wolf Animal Rescue

Second Chances Thrift Store is now open. All proceeds from sales of donations benefit Brother Wolf Animal Rescue. We have a variety of household and decorative items, furniture, books, electronics, pet supplies and much more. Donations are always gratefully accepted! Second Chances Thrift Store is on 49 Glendale Ave, beside the Brother Wolf Animal Rescue Adoption Center. Open Monday-Saturday 10am-6pm and Sunday 1pm-6pm. For more information, contact Nicole Warren at the Brother Wolf Adoption Center, 828-505-3440.

Brother Wolf Animal Rescue Operation Fix-A-Dog

Brother Wolf Animal Rescue has received a $30,085 grant from PetSmart Charities® to spay and neuter 445 dogs in our area. Operation Fix-A-Dog is available for dogs in the eastern part of the West Asheville area and downtown. Residents in this area can have their dog spayed or neutered for free at the Humane Alliance spay/neuter clinic in West Asheville. For more information, call 828-505-3440 or email fixadog@bwar.org

Asheville Area Animal Rescue Organizations

Charlotte Street Animal Hospital is sponsoring a food and supply drive to benefit all Asheville area animal rescue organizations. All community members are encouraged to help animals in need this season by dropping off donated food and supply items at 208 Charlotte Street in Asheville. Go to www.charlottestreetanimalhospital.com for complete wish-lists for each rescue group.

Community Partnership for Pets

Is the expense of having your pet spay or neutered keeping you from having it done? Every day thousands of animals across North Carolina and the United States are spayed and neutered. Sadly, every day far more are euthanized. Pet overpopulation is a problem we can all solve. Contact Community Partnership for Pets at 828-693-5172 for information about free or low cost spay and neuter options available in your area.

Cooking Oil Recycling Program

You can now recycle your used cooking oil in Western North Carolina! Used cooking oil wasted in drains and landfills can harm sewer pipes and the environment. The cooking oil recycling program is a campaign for turning your unwanted cooking oil into clean-burning locally-made biodiesel. It's easy! Visit www.cookingoilrecycling.org to find a recycling bin in your area. And thank you for making Asheville a little greener.
